

Evening Telegraph PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED) AT THE EVENING TELEGRAPH BUILDING, No. 108 S. THIRD STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

TUESDAY, APRIL 5, 1870.

THE EVENING TELEGRAPH, from its original establishment, has been in the receipt of telegraphic news from the New York Associated Press, which consists of the Tribune, Times, Herald, World, Sun, Journal of Commerce, Evening Post, Commercial Advertiser, and Evening Express. The success which has attended our enterprise is, in itself, a sufficient evidence of the freshness, fullness, and reliability of the news which we have received from this source.

ANOTHER PUBLIC BUILDING BILL. Both branches of the Legislature yesterday passed a bill which places the public building question on a new footing. The House, however, made a slight amendment to the bill passed by the Senate which has not yet been ratified by that body, so that the fate of the new project is still involved in some uncertainty.

THE CHAMPION OF THE WOMEN. THEODORE TILTON having been appointed—by whom we are not informed—a general commissioner on female emancipation, has issued a "card extraordinary," greeting the American people, and requesting all who take a friendly interest in woman's enfranchisement to send their names and those of their neighbors as fast as possible to the office of the Independent, to be inserted upon Mr. Tilton's roll of honor.

THE LOSS OF THE ONEIDA. The National House of Representatives yesterday adopted a joint resolution directing the Secretary of the Navy to make a thorough investigation with reference to the sinking of the Oneida, and the conduct of Captain Eyre, of the British steamer Bombay. It is eminently proper that the Government of the United States should take official action with regard to this sad affair, and make such an investigation of its circumstances as will place it in a proper light before the world.

collision occurred on account of a difference of understanding with regard to the right of way between the commanders of the two vessels. If it can be proved that any such misunderstanding existed, measures ought to be taken to procure the adoption of some definite international rules on the subject that will prevent any such disasters in the future.

TOP-KNOT, COME DOWN! The Democratic Attorney-General of New Jersey, following in the wake of the Democratic Governor of Maryland, has decided, in answer to a despatch from the Mayor of Princeton, that "as a practical present question of the hour, the right of the colored man to vote, if he is otherwise qualified, should be treated as settled in his favor."

THE RECEIPTS OF INTERNAL REVENUE for the first three quarters of the current fiscal year, comprising the nine months ending March 31, 1870, as compared with the corresponding months of the previous year, were as follows:

THE CALIFORNIA WINE TRADE grows in extent and importance. Except where the land is more than three thousand feet above the level of the sea, the entire State is well adapted to the cultivation of the grape, which is grown from the extreme northern limit of the State to the southern, a distance of six hundred miles. It was estimated that there were twelve million fruit-bearing vines in 1864, while this year the number is put at thirty millions, the amount of land under grape cultivation being about forty-two thousand acres.

A RESOLUTION was introduced yesterday by Mr. Ingersoll, of Illinois, in the National House of Representatives, instructing the Post Office Committee to inquire into the expediency of extending a free delivery system to all cities containing a population of not less than two hundred thousand inhabitants, and to State capitals containing not less than one hundred thousand. We hope that this proposition will receive a favorable consideration at an early day.

RHODE ISLAND to-morrow holds her annual election for the choice of State officers and a Legislature. The untended and undisturbed Democracy have nominated a full ticket, just for the fun of the thing, while the Republicans have honored all the present State officers with a renomination, which is, of course, equivalent to a re-election. The two rival tickets are as follows:

UNION LEAGUE HOUSE. PHILADELPHIA, April 4, 1870. At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Union League of Philadelphia, held April 4, 1870, it was unanimously

Resolved, That in the death of Major-General GEORGE H. THOMAS, we, together with the whole nation, mourn the loss of a pure patriot, an illustrious soldier, and a revered, beloved, and exemplary man.

Resolved, That the inestimable military services rendered by General THOMAS to the country, in the hour of its sorest peril, are worthy of perpetuation in that enduring form of monuments from which grateful nations accord to the memory of their noblest dead.

Resolved, That the devotion of General THOMAS to the great public interests of his native land was equalled only by his devotion to those principles and practices of private and domestic life which constitute the true character of a citizen, and which are the basis of our country's race of unselfish patriots, and of high-minded, virtuous, and earnest men.

Resolved, That to testify our respect and admiration for the memory of General THOMAS, we proceed in a body to the meeting of Soldiers and Sailors to be held this evening, for the purpose of expressing our sorrow at the national bereavement, and of doing public honor to his military achievements and personal worth of one who will be better remembered among the greatest and best of our departed sons of Freedom.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published, and that a copy of them be transmitted to the family of Major-General THOMAS.

By order of the Board of Directors, GEORGE H. BOKER, Secretary.
